ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER OF THE YEAR HERE IN CHINO VALLEY

The Arizona Animal Control Association or (AACCA) has announced Angela Olander, from the Chino Valley Police Department Animal Control Division, has been selected as the Arizona Animal Control Officer of the Year. This award was presented to her last week at the AACCA Conference in hosted in Laughlin Nevada.

Angela Olander was hired in 2015 as a full time Animal Control Officer for the Chino Valley Police Department and worked tirelessly to help build our program to the level of service it is currently at. Angela transitioned to full time parent and part time Animal Control in 2017 but her dedication to animal safety, the Town of Chino Valley and our shelter has never wavered. This is seen and noticed not just here in Chino Valley but statewide as she won this award, beating out full time Animal Control Officers from all over the State of Arizona.

The Chino Valley Police Department is proud of Angela for not only being nominated for this award but for beating out the competition to achieve this level of recognition. Angela truly demonstrates the core values of this department and proves that part time isn't a level of service as she enjoys full time success!
