On June 30, 2018, Chino Valley Police responded to 665 N. State Route 89, in reference to a male subject who had been stabbed. Responding Officers and Fire personnel performed life saving measures, but the victim ultimately died of his injuries a short time later at the hospital.

During their investigation, Officers learned the victim, 16 year old Alex Robinson, several other juveniles and the suspect, 26 year old Donovan Larriba-Tucker, all Chino Valley residents, had been involved in a fight in a field located off Grasshopper Road in Chino Valley. During the fight Larriba-Tucker stabbed Alex several times with a knife. After being stabbed, two of the juveniles drove Alex to the location where he was located by the Officers.
